

The ReadyAlready® Growth Cycle

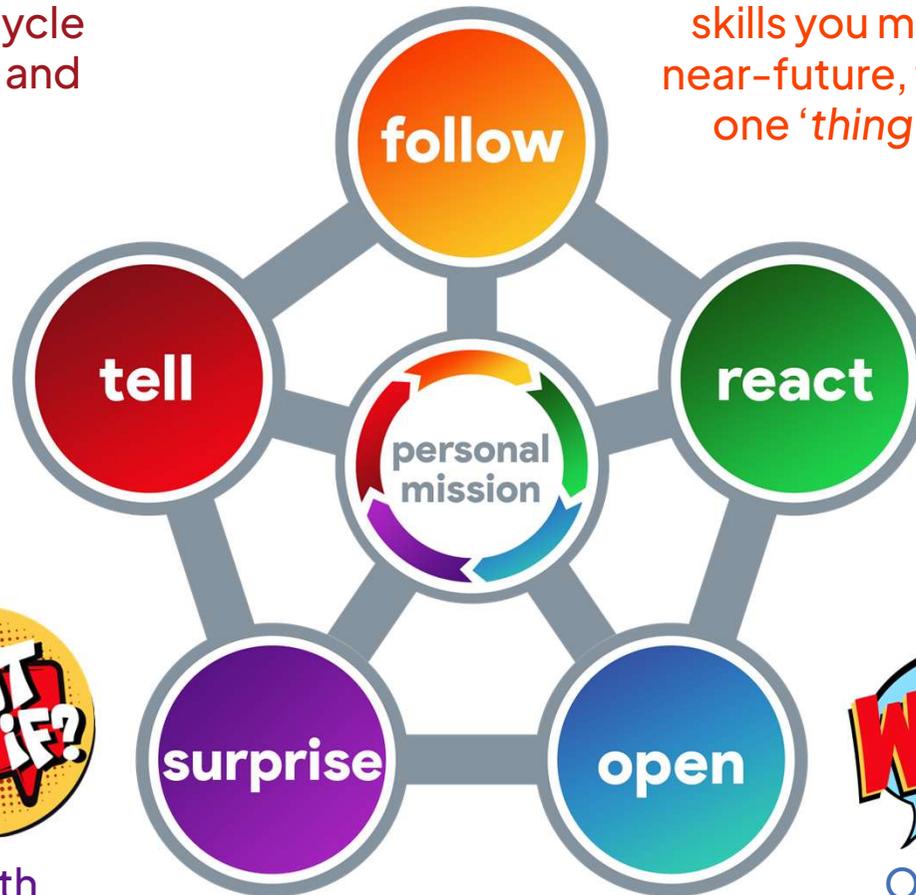

<START IN THE MIDDLE>

Find and embrace
your Personal Mission

TELL others generously about your journey around the ReadyAlready® Growth Cycle and collaborate to shape and improve your future

Make a long list of topics and skills you may need in the near-future, then select just one 'thing' to FOLLOW

Learn all you can about your 'thing', before deciding how you should REACT (if it's a dud, go back to Follow)

SURPRISE yourself with imagination to surface non-obvious ideas and dreams for your 'thing'

OPEN your mind to change with curiosity by asking naïve questions of your 'thing'
